Dear Mrs. Garity,

Because the post office says sending the book special delivery, book rate, may be a little faster than first class, we have sent it to you this way.

Perhaps you noticed they just stopped questioning me, that the show just began to peter out after about 3 hours and 40 minutes. I was satisfied, for it leaves ample fresh material for other broadcasts in the New York area, and these are not unlikely, from expressions of interest I have had.

There is another "look-alike". Billy Lovelady bears a remarkable resemblance to Oswald. From your letter, I think you will be especially interested in the Chapter "The False Oswald".

Some of the New York area bookstore do have WHITEWASH, but I do not know which ones. They can all obtain it now in regular commercial channels, from whatever distributors they deal with. At least two are in New York, Dimondstein and Bookazine.

Thank you for taking thetime to extend your welcome good wishes.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
